Contents

This Handbook used to set out the University's requirements and expectations with regard to procedures and practice relating to placement learning, including apprenticeships, and professional programmes across the institution. Its purpose was to ensure consistency and fairness for students and to promote the assurance of quality and comparability of academic standards in professional programmes and for students on placement.

Its sections included:

Placement Learning

Equality and Support for Disabled Students on Placement

Professional Suitability Procedures

Practice Placement Whistleblowing procedure

Register of Professional Programmes

Its contents have now been superseded, or, where necessary retained elsewhere in suitable locations outside of the Quality and Standards Manual.
