

The Student Code of Conduct

Responsible, Reasonable and Respectful Conduct

The University recognises that it is a community with a significant part to play in the wider communities in which it is located and that its obligations to its own staff and students extend to these wider communities. The University therefore believes that it should both promote a high level of responsibility within the student body and further the development of good relationships between the University and these wider communities and beyond. In doing so the University reminds students that in any situation, in any part of the University or when involved in any activities associated with the University including those undertaken away from University premises, students must:

- ❖ behave responsibly and with consideration, courtesy and respect towards others;
- ❖ not act in a way that could endanger, or cause harm or any form of distress to any other person;
- ❖ not engage in behaviour which causes offence or distress because of the protected characteristics of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation;
- ❖ use the University's facilities or services with care;
- ❖ act within the law;
- ❖ behave in accordance with the University's rules and regulations including, but not limited to, those relating to:
  - Academic Regulations
  - Health and Safety
  - Equal Opportunities
  - Use of University facilities
  - Rules relating to residential living
  - Requirements of Professional, Regulatory or Statutory Bodies;
- ❖ not interfere with the normal working of the University or any of its facilities or services
- ❖ not bring the University into disrepute by any of their actions.

Students as members of the University and the wider community must also comply with UK government and/or University rules, requirements, protocols or guidance that are put in place with a view to ensuring public health and safety and/or the safeguarding of others including taking reasonable preventative measures designed to ensure the health and safety of others.

Under no circumstances will the University tolerate any behaviour that amounts to an offence against a person including, but not limited to, assault, sexual assault or sexual violence, domestic violence or discrimination or harassment of any kind, whether verbal or physical and in any form or medium, including in any online space or context; such misconduct will be dealt with severely.

Individual students are responsible for ensuring that they are aware of any such regulations or standards and that they comply with them. Copies of these regulations are available from the University's intranet.

Examples of behaviour that will be regarded as misconduct and the possible sanctions which are available are published in the Guidance Notes.

Illustrative Examples of Misconduct

The defining and grading of the misconduct in the procedures is intended to give an indication as to the severity of the measure to be imposed. Misconduct graded solely as serious misconduct and/or any misconduct involving the (mis)use of alcohol and/or any other substances or against a person should normally be considered under the Formal Phase. Moreover, any person who engages in any form of violence, assault, misconduct or sexual misconduct against another person or who is found guilty of a criminal offence will be liable to the most severe measure.

Any misconduct graded as general misconduct may be considered at the Informal Phase and progressed to the Formal Phase if or as necessary.

The examples listed below are illustrative only and are neither comprehensive nor exhaustive. Examples may be added or amended as necessary by the Vice-Chancellor:
